On the eve of sending troops into battle, Bush said there was “no doubt that the Iraq regime continues to possess and conceal some of the most lethal weapons ever devised.” Now David Kay, the CIA’s chief weapons inspector, has testified before Congress that these weapons do not exist.

In Feb 2003, a CIA report said: “We do not have any direct evidence that Iraq has used the period since [1998] to reconstitute its Weapons of Mass Destruction programs.”

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace found that the administration “systematically misrepresented the threat” from Iraq. The basis for President Bush’s African uranium claim was known at the time to be forged and not credible. When Colin Powell read the first draft of his speech to the UN-- prepared by Dick Cheney’s chief of staff -- he was so upset that he lost his temper, throwing several pages in the air and declaring, “I’m not reading this. This is bullsh--.”

All for a war that was unnecessary.

Jeffrey Record of the Army War College has stated that “Iraq...was a war-of-choice distraction from the war of necessity against” al-Queda.

Our democracy only works when we know the truth. We now know President Bush and his administration deliberately misled Congress and the American people.

LET HIM KNOW HOW YOU FEEL IN NOVEMBER.

The Geocentric System

Five hundred years ago, the sun was thought to revolve around the earth. People did not know what we know now. “Truths” change. We now know there were no longer any WMD in Iraq. We now know that Mission Accomplished is a lie. And we know that those lies are worse than anything involving a stained blue dress.
