

It is conjectured by some that the supraplanar elements that have chosen to manifest locally in the spacetime continuum are not inimical to mankind, as previously supposed, but instead, are reacting to the inherent prejudice, bigotry, and violence of man. The potential for losses incurred by offering the supraplanar elements a token of appeasement prior to entering into negotiation would be minor, and could be affected without any difficulty from the offering by following our current policy of ignorance.

... suggest that among the supraplanar elements in our vicinity, the type known as "Empire" would be the
